• Start Logic and make it use JackRouter as input and output • Click 'Routing' in JackPilot main window and connect system capture with Logic input and Logic output systems playback (click on 'system -> capture_1' and doubleclick on 'Logic Pro -> in1' etc).. • Click 'Start' in JackPilot main window to start Jack server • In System Preferences set JackRouter as default input and oputput.. It does all I personally need, so I haven't looked at alternative ways too much.. Following quickstart guide is just one example (although the simplest one IMHO) to make it work.. You need to install: • Run JackPilot, doublecheck in preferences that samplerate and buffersize are same as in your Logic and uncheck 'Auto-connect with physical ports'.
